ABOUT THIS NEWSLETTER. The CCSA Community Newsletter is a quarterly publication that was created as a means of staying in touch with the CCSA community. With CCSA's growing membership and growing geographic diversity, the staff felt it helpful to create a local source of regular information for members of the institutions we serve. Please feel free to provide suggestions for information that you would like covered in future issues.

FACULTY PROPOSALS FOR SUMMER 2018

We have had great success with our "New Faculty Incentive"! In addition to CCSA's normal locations, the summer 2018 mix of classes will include programs in Ghana and South Africa. There are a total of 27 classes approved to teach, and we are working on getting the Summer 2018 catalog out much earlier than in previous years.

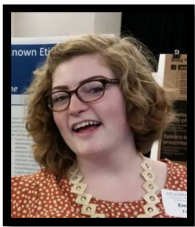

Additional information about teaching with CCSA can be viewed here:

CCSA EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

The staff at CCSA has been reviewing and improving our response protocols for any emergency events that could potentially happen during one of our programs. Additionally, we are scheduling additional meetings with program administrators to ensure those involved are prepared if anything were to happen during a program.

Student Spotlight! – Emily Fox

CCSA would like to congratulate Emily Fox, a former Storyteller and Belize Anthropology participant, for her work on presenting "Potential Environmental Causes of Kidney Disease of Unknown Etiology in Northern Belize". She was recently presented an award for her work that resulted from her study abroad trip.

Welcome! – Megan Gullett

Megan Gullett is a CCSA alumni, and a graduate student from Murray State University, who is conducting an educational leadership internship with us this summer. She is helping to create our Campus Representative Toolkit, which will provide tips, tools, and other information to help support our campus representatives. Please feel free to give Megan a warm welcome and a big
