

WINTER 2017/2018 PROGRAM UPDATE

The winter students and faculty have returned! The Australia program was very popular again this year with 42 students enrolled in 2 classes. Kudos to Drs. Ruth Beattie and Sara Malone for their excellent recruiting efforts. A summary of winter program reviews will be presented at the next board meeting. Thank you to all who helped to make winter 2017/2018 a success!

SPREAD THE WORD!

Sharing the positive impact of study abroad experiences.

While many of us working in the study abroad industry are familiar with the positive impacts of study abroad, it is important that we continue to share this information so that it is not forgotten. Here is a highlighted summary listing some of the impacts of study abroad:

- Improved graduation rates, retention rates, and grade point averages
- Increased intercultural understanding and confidence
- Better job outlooks and higher income levels

Please make sure to continue sharing this information so that education abroad remains a relevant and important part of each of our member institutions at all levels.
